To the Class of 2014:

Congratulations on the completion of a remarkable high school career. You will always be special to me, as you were the first graduating class with which I had the privilege to work. You welcomed me to your community and helped me to learn the traditions of the Manchester Essex Hornets.

The Class of 2014 has impressed me with your commitment, caring, range of accomplishments and spirit. You have reached the high expectations that have been set by your teachers, advisors, coaches and parents. In so many ways this class has brought honor and recognition to Manchester Essex Regional High School.

As you go onto new adventures, don't forget to take time to enjoy each day for what it brings and to keep your goals and dreams in mind. Drive yourself to achieve, but allow yourself to enjoy the ride. I wish you much joy and happiness as you move on to the next chapter in your lives.

In closing, thank you for all that you have done for our school community. It has been thoroughly enjoyable to work with you during your senior year.

Best wishes,
Patricia Puglisi
Principal

The Class of 2014 prouldy dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Murphy

In all the years that Mr. Murphy has worked at Manchester-Essex, the class of 2014 is proud to say that we are the first to dedicate our yearbook to our beloved vice principal. Even though he reprimands us for supposedly not keeping the senior room clean, confiscates our "text phones," and has a very odd preference in facial hair, we will truly miss his unforgettable sense of humor and generosity.

Murph Dog has been there for us throughout our four high school years. He is always looking out for our best interest and guiding us toward the start of a new chapter in our lives. Thank you so much for giving us a home away from home. We will never forget you.

Sincerely,
The Class of 2014

To our Class Advisor, Ms. Coleman:

Thank you so much for helping us through our four years here at Manchester Essex. Being freshmen during your first year teaching here, we started our crazy journey through high school together. From your humor to your willingness to participate in every Spirit Week event, we've always loved your enthusiasm and love for America. We wouldn't have had the same success and great experience that we did without you.

As your pumpkin bears, we cannot thank you enough for your dedication to fundraising and ensuring that we had the greatest senior year possible. While it's sad to say our goodbyes, we know the we can friend you on Facebook the second we graduate!

"Yay America!"

Love,

The Class of 2014

To our Class:

Congratulations Class of 2014!

It seems like moments ago we were entering this building as young, naïve freshmen, and now we exit ready to accomplish our dreams. Our class has grown so much over the years, forming a solid unit for others to look up to. Whether it's the entire senior class coming together to cheer on our basketball teams this winter and traveling to Harvard Stadium to support our football team, or sitting in the audience wincing while Chris Milne shaves Mr. Murphy's beard, or laughing in the audience as drama performs another one of their comedies, we've always been great at coming together as a class. We've had our ups and downs, but everything that we have been through together has made us stronger and more of a family.

This has been a great experience, and we, the editors, hope that every one of you embarks on a journey to success and happiness. We may not save the world's last whale, but one day we will look back and see that our class has truly made a difference and an impact on others to come. So congrats class of 2014! We did it! Maybe we'll even see you at the ten-year reunion!

Love your editors,
Sarah, Courtney, and Julia

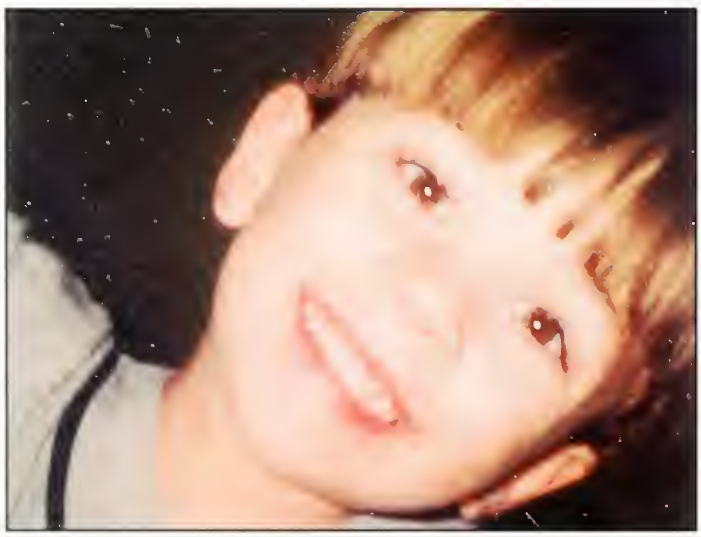
To my Beautiful Daughter,
I am so proud of you and all that you have accomplished and overcome. You are genuine, compassionate, loving and kind. My true gift from God!! Always remember one of our favorite "Marcy" quotes: "There comes a time in your life, when you walk away from all the drama and people who create it. You surround yourself with people who make you laugh. Forget the bad, and focus on the good. Love the people who treat you right, pray for the ones who don't. Life is too short to be anything but happy. Falling down is a part of life, getting back up is living."

ZACHARY TREMBOWICZ



Listen to the MUSTN'TS, child, LISTEN to the DONT'S.
Listen to the SHOULDN'TS, the IMPOSSIBLES, the WONT'S.
Listen to the NEVER HAVES
Then listen close to me-
Anything can happen, child,
ANYTHING can be. Shel Silverstein

BE HAPPY, BE YOU.
LOVE YOU,
MOM

Chris Dente

May you always have a sunbeam to warm you, a moonbeam to charm you, a sheltering angel so nothing can harm you. May your pockets hold always a coin or two. May the rainbow be certain to follow each rain. May the hand of a friend always be near you. And may God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.
An Irish Blessing

We are all very proud of you and look forward to watching you as you follow your heart and dreams. They already know who you truly want to be!

Sean Gutierrez-Schieferl

Dear Sean,
We are still remembering when Mrs Dodge organized your interview into MERSD elementary school, it seems like yesterday. Since then we have seen you grow into a committed student athlete. We have seen your generosity, your commitment to make yourself better and your leadership. You never complain about work load or physical pain after a game, you take it all in..... life demands that sometimes. You are ready for your next adventure, we proudly will be looking and ready to help if needed.Congratulations on your Graduation Sean!
We love you,
Mom and Dad
